

SAN FRANCISCO & LOS ANGELES

(Note: This is only a sample tour)

Day 1: Depart for San Francisco. Upon arrival enjoy panoramic sightseeing tour. See Haight Ashbury, Fisherman Wharf, Telegraph Hill, Nob Hill the Golden Gate Bridge and the Presidio. Work your leg muscles as you climb UP Lombard Street between Hyde and Leavenworth Streets, the world's crookedness street.

Day 2: Today enjoy a culinary walking tour. San Francisco is comprised of numerous very diverse cultures and this is reflected in the great San Francisco cuisine. Alcatraz Island looms over San Francisco Bay. This afternoon visit "The Rock". Alcatraz is famous for Al Capone, and 'Machine Gun' Kelly. Then wander towards Fisherman's Wharf and spend some time shopping, watching the jugglers, mime artists and magicians along Pier 39. This historic waterfront serves delicious seafood, offers unique shopping and spectacular sites. Rich in maritime history, the wharf has something to offer everyone

Day 3: Take a ride on the clattering cable cars, part of San Francisco's classic and colorful image. The cable cars were declared a national historic landmark in 1964. Upon disembarkation head to The Embarcadero, a broad avenue along the bayfront, lined with shops, restaurants and tourist attractions including several piers that have been converted to specialty shopping malls. Visit the Cannery at Del Monte Square. Originally built in 1907, The Cannery was once the largest peach cannery in the world. Today, it is a vibrant waterfront marketplace of shops and restaurants, offices, live entertainment, and a world-class jazz club. Head to Ghirardelli Square, a famous shopping mall around Fisherman's Wharf housing some of the best chocolate in the world. While sourdough breads have been made throughout the world, San Francisco's sourdough is widely regarded as the best in the world. Watch Boudin bakers at work. Savor a San Francisco specialty – clam chowder in a Sourdough bread bowl.

Day 4: Depart San Francisco for scenic Carmel and Monterey and tour the spectacular 17 Mile Drive. As you drive along, following the Pacific Coastline, you can see famous Big Sur. Spend some time wandering in these seaside havens and enjoy mingling with the locals as you lunch in a local restaurant. Overnight in San Simeon.

Day 5: Tour the incredible Hearst Castle with its unbelievable art collection and the playground of the rich and famous of the early 20th century. Stop in the Danish village of Solvang and a visit to the Historic Mission in Santa Barbara. Arrive in Los Angeles. Enroute to hotel enjoy an orientation tour of the world's "Capital of Glamour". You will drive to Hollywood to see the footprints of the stars at Grumman's Chinese Theatre, visit the Hollywood Bowl and Sunset Strip. Also see the elegant Beverly Hills with its famous movie star homes and stores on Rodeo Drive.

Day 6: Today a full day visit to Universal Studios, the world's largest motion picture and television studio. You will have plenty of time to visit and attend the various shows which are presented throughout the day. Explore the rides, exhibits, and behind-the-scene activities that the theme park has to offer. Have lunch on your own at the Universal City Walk. Return to the hotel to freshen up and transfer for an evening at the Medieval Times Dinner and Tournament. This is sure to be a fun and entertaining evening. You will partake in a feast as well as a spirited jousting tournament. Cheer your favorite knight to victory.

Day 7: Start your day with breakfast at your hotel followed by your departure for Disneyland, the "Happiest Place on Earth". The sights are heart-warming, the rides thrilling and the scenery magical in this extraordinary space. Young or old, Disneyland tugs at your heart and leaves you with unforgettable memories of this special world of make believe. Spend a full day enjoying the sights, rides, thrills and scenery of this magical place.
